

SELECTING TREES TO SURVIVE CLIMATE CHANGE.

Street Tree Trials: The future for our Urban Forests

TREENET SEQ FORUM

Thursday 15th February 2024

9.30am - 2pm

Lvl 3, STEELE BUILDING
University of Queensland, St Lucia

What will the forum cover?

Street tree species trials - update from SEQ Councils
Local research, TREENET resources & industry support
Exploring opportunities for progress and collaboration

Members: $90; Non-members: $180
FREE for Students

Register at treenet.org/SEQforum

CONTACT INFORMATION

E. amy@treenet.org; P. 08-7080 6310

Progressing future generations of healthy,
multi-functional and long lived street trees

PROGRAM

Time	Topic	Presenter
9.00-9.30am	Registration
9.30-9.35am	Welcome and purpose	Lyndal Plant - TREENET Chair
Part A – Updates on progress and knowledge sharing
9.35-9.55am	TREENET Street tree species trials resources	Tim Johnson - Director
9.55 – 10.15am	Qld Sub-tropics tree species - filtering climate adaptation & street tree potential	A/Prof John Dwyer (UQ)
10.15 – 10.35am	Brisbane City Council (BCC) – trials update	Presented by Russell Tomlin (BCC)
10.35 – 10.55am	Sunshine Coast Council (SCC) – trials update	Sarah Nunn & Jason McDowell (SCC)
10.55 – 11.00am	Knowledge sharing wrap	Lyndal Plant
11.00 – 11.20am	Morning Tea
Part B – ID collaboration opportunities
11.20 – 12.00pm	Invite displayers to speak to their info/picks & progress	Poster contributors
12.00 – 12.10pm	Groups workshop intro – partnership Case Study	Hamish Mitchell (Speciality Trees)
12.10 – 12.55pm	Groups workshop – challenges, actions & partners	Facilitators
12.55 – 1.20pm	Groups report back	Group spokespeople
1.20 – 1.30pm	Actions & Partnership opportunities	Lyndal Plant
1.30 – 2.00pm	Lunch & networking

